ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing was held in this case on April 2, 2009. Trey Hamilton, Assistant United States Attorney, was present representing the government, and Kim Tollison, Assistant Federal Defender, was present representing the defendant. The defendant was present. Before the detention hearing began, counsel for the defendant stated that the defendant wished to waive his right to a detention hearing at this time, and reserve the right to have a hearing at a later date, if appropriate. Pursuant to the defendant signing a Waiver of Detention Hearing, the defendant is to be detained. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)(B).

The defendant is aware of his rights to a prompt detention hearing and to require the government to meet its burden of proving that no conditions of release exist which will reasonably assure his appearance in court and the safety of the community. The defendant knows that if his detention hearing is waived he will remain in custody while it is continued.

For good cause shown, the defendant's request not to contest, and to waive the detention hearing is hereby GRANTED.

It is therefore ORDERED that:

(1)   Defendant be detained.;

(2)   Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(3)   Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and

(4)   On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with any court proceeding.
